DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 33-49 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 33-49 rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-34 of U. S. Patent No. 6,135,671 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: Claims 33 and 45 disclosed in current application is a method claim of apparatus claims disclosed in Hutchinson et al US 6,135,671. Independent method claims 33 and 45 correspond to apparatus claims 1, 30, 31, and 34. Although Hutchinson et al do not specifically claim third aperture, the invention implies third aperture since the claims anticipates two or more apertures with different aperture size. Dependent claims 34-44 and 46-49 in current application are substantially disclosed in claims 2-29 , 32, and 33 in Hutchinson et al.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
